Dear Parents/Carers,

This half term is flying by. It is hard to believe that there are only 79 days to go until Christmas! Thank you to those of you who attended my Inspiring Writing workshop on Monday. It was lovely to meet with you and I hope you enjoyed yourselves as much as I did.

The Head Boy, Head Girl, their deputies and the prefects were presented with their badges in assembly on Monday. It was wonderful to see how proud they looked as they pinned their badges onto their uniforms.

I attended a beautiful service at Holy Trinity Church last Sunday. I received a very warm welcome and it was a pleasure to meet some of the congregation. I will be attending the family service on the first Sunday of every month from 10-11am and it would be lovely to see some of our school family at the service too.

Please note, the school photographer will be in on Thursday 20th October.

Have a wonderful weekend,

With very kind regards,

Sarah-Jane Pendleton

Holiday workshops

Every holiday I will be holding a two-day inspiring writing workshop for a different year group. In the summer holidays, I held a workshop for Year 6, so this holiday it is the turn of Year 5, who are invited to join me for a two day reading and writing extravaganza. In the February half-term I will be organising the same event for Year 4 and in the Easter holidays Year 3. Year 2 will be invited for a workshop in the May half term. It is a wonderful opportunity for me to inspire our children to read and write through a range of exciting reading and writing activities. Having worked for many years as a National Strategy Literacy Consultant, it is my passion to inspire children to read and write and I absolutely love getting back into the classroom.
