Friday 3rd February 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

The last 6 weeks have gone in the blink of an eye. It is hard to believe that we break up for the half term holiday next week. Last week we had Assessment week at school and I am delighted with the progress the children are making. We have high expectations for all of our children and as a school we strive for every child to achieve their very best.

We have another exciting week of learning planned for next week and the first half term of 2017 will end with a French day, where we will be celebrating many of the French speaking countries in the world. At Holy Trinity we will be celebrating a different language every month and you will see in our school hall we have a display of the Language of the Month. This month we will be focussing on French. We will also be starting French lessons at Holy Trinity after the half term holiday.

It is the family service at Holy Trinity Church this Sunday at 10am. I will be attending with my little girl, Brontë-Isabella, so I hope to see some of you there.

Just a reminder that the Internet Safety Meeting will take place on Tuesday 7th February at 6pm. A crèche will be available.

Have a wonderful weekend,

With kind regards,

Sarah-Jane Pendleton

This year Holy Trinity will be taking part in READATHON- a national sponsored event-to encourage children to read for pleasure whilst helping children in hospital at the same time. Reading for pleasure should be encouraged whenever possible-research shows again and again that young people who regularly read for pleasure are more likely to do well throughout their lives. Readathon helps to establish and reinforce these good habits and enables pupils to discover which books, authors and genres they enjoy the most.

We are inviting the children at Holy Trinity to complete the sponsored read during the half term holiday, as part of their home learning. The money raised will help seriously ill children in the UK, and helps Readathon to provide books and storytellers to children in hospital.

Class Assemblies

Just a reminder that the next class assembly will be
Year 2 – Thursday 9th February

The assemblies will start at 9 am.

We look forward to seeing you there.
